

Climate Change: Essay Questions

1. Why are communities affected by poverty more susceptible to the effects of climate change? Use two case studies to support your argument.
2. How will climate change affect the poorest people in the world? What can be done to support these communities in the future?
3. What can be done to support poor communities in dealing with the impacts of climate change? Use two case studies to highlight your argument.